Re: Lane v. Rocah, et al., No. 22 Civ. 10989 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

The Office of the Attorney General represents Steven G. James (the "Superintendent"), in his official capacity as Superintendent of the New York State Police, in the above-referenced action. We write jointly with Defendant Miriam Rocah, and with the consent of Plaintiffs, to respectfully request permission to each file a single memorandum of law up to fifty-pages in length, both in opposition to Plaintiffs' motion for summary judgment and in support of each Defendants' own motion for summary judgment, instead of two separate twenty-five-page briefs.

We understand that the Court encourages and appreciates brevity, but due to the seriousness and legal complexity of Plaintiffs' action, and because the briefs will include an opposition and a memorandum of law in support of each Defendants' own motion, additional pages are required. This is the first request for a page limit extension by any party.

We thank the Court for its attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,
